- Gender and Language
- Gender and Globalization
- Diverse Social Perceptions of Gender and Their Consequences
- Gender, Body and Health
- Gender, Science and Technology
- Gender and Sexuality
- Gender and Religion
- Gender, Space and Place
- Gender and Discrimination
- Gender and Legal Regulations
- Gender, Labour and the Working Life
- Gender and Power Relations
- Construcions and Transformations of Femininity and Masculinity
- New Perspectives in Gender and Sexuality

Abstracts can be submitted via e-mail to fas@maltepe.edu.tr by 30 December 2012 and contain a clear outline of theoretical framework, methodology and results.

The text of the abstracts should be submitted in English ONLY, in a separate Word document in the following format: max. 300-400 words, 1.5 line spaced Arial (Plain) 11-point font (except for title which should be 14-point font), A4 size page formatting, with the page margins of 2.5 cm from the left, top and bottom and 2 cm from the right.

The panels should not exceed four people and four different abstracts (200 words long), and should be prepared by each member of that specific panel.

We encourage lecturers, teachers and professors to circulate this call widely across your undergraduate students. This will be a unique occasion to visit the legendary city of İstanbul, where you can enjoy the harmony of cultures, harmony of people & the rhythm of diversities. Istanbul is the only city in the world where you can enjoy your meal with the landscape of another continent. (<http://english.istanbul.com/>) There will be plenty of opportunities for socialization and organized trips.

Please circulate this call widely across undergraduate students not only in gender studies programs in particular but also in relevant social sciences and humanities areas, such as anthropology, archaeology, architecture, arts, economics, geography, history, law, linguistics, literature, philosophy, psychology, religious studies, social work and sociology. This will be a unique occasion to visit the city of Istanbul. Participating students will be joining fellow students from Turkey and across the world to debate the raising issues in the area of gender in a conference organized by students for students, with the support of staff at Maltepe University's Faculty of Arts and Sciences. The papers presented at the congress will be published in a volume of proceedings.
