Courses in spanish as a foreign language 2013 - 2014

Courses in Spanish as a Foreign Language at the University of Zaragoza are run throughout the year in Zaragoza while in the summer they are transferred to the tourist resort of Jaca (Huesca) in the Pyrenees. The University of Zaragoza has been a pioneer in teaching Spanish to foreign students since 1927. It has agreements with a number of public and private institutions around the world, working directly with various official bodies to promote the Spanish language (the Cervantes Institute, the Education Office of a number of Spanish embassies, the Aragon Regional Government, the Ministry of Education and Science) and it is the Official Examination Centre for the Diploma of Spanish as a Foreign Language (DELE, with exams in May and November). The University of Zaragoza is recognised worldwide, as is demonstrated by the high number of foreign students attending the various co-operation programmes in which it participates (Socrates-Erasmus, Tempus).

Courses in spanish

as a foreign language in Zaragoza

The city of Zaragoza, with a population over 700,000, is the capital of the Aragon region. It offers visitors more than two thousand years of history with traces of its Iberian, Roman, Arabic, Jewish and Christian legacy. Its prime geographical location between Madrid and Barcelona, Bilbao and Valencia has made it a meeting place for numerous activities of all types: national and international conferences and exhibitions, sports events, scientific and artistic meetings, festivals, trade fairs and concerts among many others. Zaragoza's range of services makes it a very attractive city for visitors, who can enjoy a wide variety of businesses, shops, restaurants and leisure activities.
