

Óbuda University Alba Regia Műszaki Kar
Subject name: PROJECT WORK
A tananyag
Teaching aim: Students will learn how to plan, organise, solve and present a real industrial and/or economic practical problem in a group by working independently on sub-tasks. To develop competency-based skills based on the needs of industrial, commercial and business organisations, primarily in the areas of collaboration, working in a group and applying theoretical knowledge to practice. The outcome of the work will be the development of a workable process, tool or other intellectual product and documentation according to professional standards. Through the project work, students will acquire the problem-solving skills, vision and thinking that will be expected of them in their future workplace after graduation. Recommended group size: 1-3 students per project.
Tematika:
Mid-term requirements
The course must end with a presentation and a final project document. The presentation will be organised in front of an audience of lecturers and students per subject, coordinated by the subject supervisors.	